Saturdays December 8th & 15th

Sibling rivalry, adultery, and dungeons – The Lion in Winter, by James Goldman, is a modern-day classic. Comedic in tone, dramatic in action – the play tells the story of the Plantagenet family, who are locked in a free-for-all of competing ambitions to inherit a kingdom

Special Note: There will not be a show on Friday, December 7th due to downtown open house, but the box office will be open so you can stop in to get tickets and a special presentation about the show will be running in the theatre. 6:00pm - 9:00pm

The Lion in Winter movie is celebrating its 50th Anniversary this year. What better way to celebrate by coming to see our production.

October 30, 1968: 'The Lion In Winter' was released in U.S. movie theaters. The following year the film earned seven Academy Award nominations, including Best Picture, Best Actress, and Best Actor. 'The Lion in Winter: it's Dynasty in the middle ages' - via The Guardian: <https://bit.ly/2ze5aQA>

"What is The Future of LTCT"

Come One! Come All! Now is the time to help LTCT gather as much feedback and perspectives as possible in order to direct the course of the future of LTCT. With our lease expiring in 2020 and an upcoming renovation for CTAC, LTCT is approaching a time of re-imagination. What could the future hold for us? If you would be willing to spare 15 minutes to complete a survey. You can take it right online or download the survey to mail in or bring to the special meeting.
