Crash Course into Community Theatre

It's Official and Ready for Sign Up!

Thursdays 6:45pm - 8:45pm
January 31st - April 25th

$60 for all 12 weeks
North Central Michigan College:
SCRC Room 550 (upstairs level of building with gym)

Join Little Traverse Civic Theater, the area's community theater group, for this introduction to the basics of live theater. Instructors will lead classes in lights, acting, stage combat, costuming, and more. The first 6 weeks will focus on acting. The last 6 weeks will touch on the many technical aspects of a theatre production. A ticket to the LTCT spring show is included in the cost.

To round out the course we will be doing a reader's theatre performance of The Diary of Anne Frank in partnership with the Petoskey Public Library. More info to come.

To register for these classes, call or stop by the NCMC fitness center office on the Petoskey campus: 231 - 439 - 6370
